

DAVID M. FINK

David is President of the Plastics Pipe Institute (PPI) since January 2020. He previously worked for 13 years as the Senior VP for WL Plastics (HDPE pressure pipe and conduit). David also worked for Dow for 12 years in sales, marketing and business management having a focus on plastic pipe resins.

David previously served as PPI Chairman of Board and remains active in The Alliance for PE Pipe, ASTM, AGA, AWWA and other industry related organizations. David has degrees in chemistry and chemical engineering and resides in the Dallas area with his wife, Brittainy, and two sons, Logan and Tyler.